FAQ

Q: What is the cost to apply for a position as a Board of Director?

A: There is no cost to apply.

Q: How much does a member of the Board of Directors get paid?

A: Being a member of the Board of Directors is a voluntary, non-paid position. You are paid in extreme satisfaction knowing that you are greatly serving the Association and your fellow AAR Realtor® members with your time, knowledge and wisdom.

Q: When does the Board of Directors meet?

A: Typically on the fourth Friday of every month from 8:30am to 10:30am. Some meetings are longer, some meetings are shorter.

Q: I already applied to be on the Board of Directors but I was not appointed. Should I apply again?

A: YES! The number of applicants varies each year so it's very common for applicants not to be appointed on their 1st or even 2nd attempt. It's highly encouraged for members to apply often! Remember, applying again means you have more years of experience to add to your application.
