

Mike Vachani is a veteran real estate professional with years of experience handling all forms of real estate investments and development including residential, commercial and land sales. As the owner and manager of a Full Service Real Estate Brokerage and Advisory Firm in SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Mike has personally handled over $250,000,000 in transaction volume and continues to exceed his Client's goals. Mike is also very knowledgeable about US tax and legal codes and works with many international clients. Mike is a family man and enjoys developing his children and giving back to the community. In addition, Mike is also active in all levels of politics and currently helps runs the Local Government Relations Committee, Commercial Committee and the Young Professional Network. In addition, Mike is on the national Commercial Committee for the National Association of Realtors. Mike holds a MBA in Real Estate & Finance from the Paul Merage School of Business, a Bachelors of Arts in Psychology & Economics from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) and a TRC & CIPS designation from National Association of Realtors.

Specialties: Land Acquisition and Development, Financial Analysis, Teaching Investors How to Invest